Introduction

The Channel Country Ladies Day Scholarship Program 2023 is funded through The Channel Country Ladies Day Committee, thanks to the generous support of scholarship partner Santos.

Each scholarship is valued at $1000 and includes:

- Registration and tented accommodation* for the 2023 Channel Country Ladies Day weekend from 20th – 22nd October 2023 at Bedourie; including all catering and most activities over the weekend.
- Mentoring in one of three streams, including mentoring and/or workshops leading up to Channel Country Ladies Day 2023 or after depending on stream chosen.

Scholarship recipients will have the choice between one of the three streams that form the basis of the CCLD weekend:

- Arts;
- Health & Wellbeing; or
- Personal & Business Development.

Applications for scholarships are open to all women who reside within the Channel Country region, whether you live in a small town or on a large pastoral station. The Scholarships are for women who may have suffered adversity, or may just need something like a weekend away at Channel Country Ladies Day to give them a boost, and will be awarded based on assessment against selection criteria detailed in Section 5 of these Guidelines.

 Where the successful applicant does not require tented accommodation at CCLD, the equivalent value will be distributed to the applicant at registration for use on the weekend.*
